DOUGLAS LAYNE

NANCY MANN

Red headed Sylvia bubbles over with liveliness and never knows a dull moment.

Douglas enjoys the chase more than the conquest, chief engineer on a '48 Chevrolet.

Her immunity to boys makes us all wonder, but Nancy Mann's love of life is matched only by her love of horses.

An able leader on the athletic field or among friends, HAROLD ALVIS is a credit to his school.

Kookie, Kookie! Lend me your comb, BILLY AMOS always has a comb handy for that pet wave.

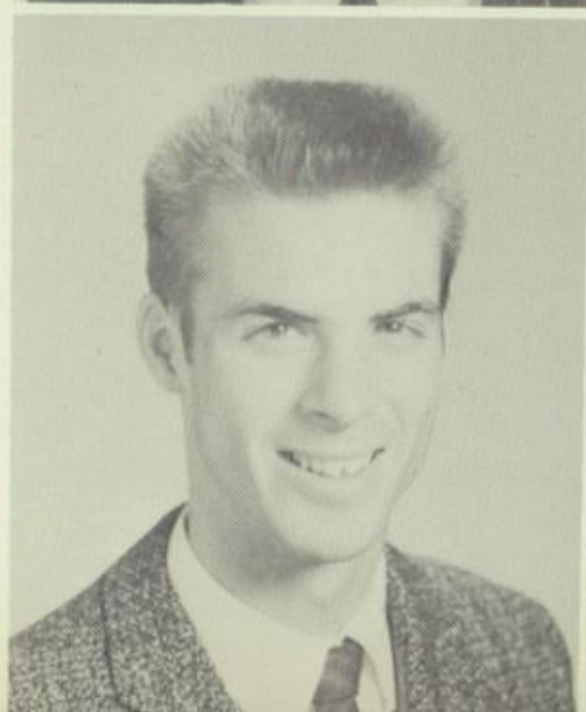

Versatile with a gift of poise, BARBARA BARKER has winning ways.

6 feet 5 inches short, KENNETH BOWMAN never stays bothered for long, except by his 'women', excels in sports.

Well known for her sunny smile, CHARLOTTE LANG gets the job done.

Never at a loss for words, ALBERTA LOWERY likes plenty of fun and is still waiting for that special one.

Douglas Layne's accomplishments at Goochland High have too often been hidden behind an outgoing personality and mischievous smile.

Quiet and determined, Betty Hodges has developed an ability to follow, to lead, and to create powerful and accomplished literary works.

Unselfishly giving of his time and talents, Haswell Proffitt daily proved worthy of the respect extended him by the faculty and students.

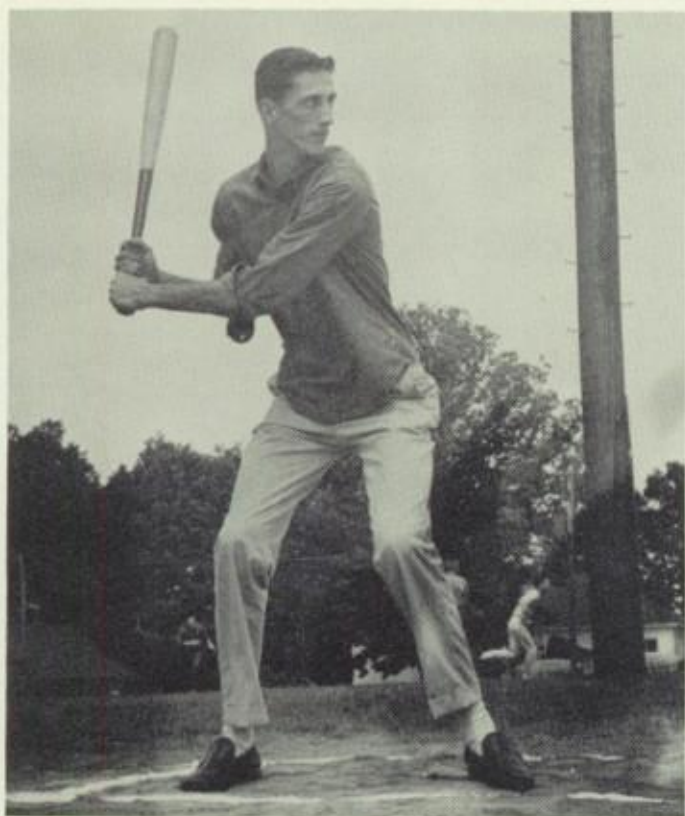

"TOP

Involved in every facet of school life, Douglas Jordan played hard, worked effectively, and consistently contributed the extra effort that turned O.K. to excellent.

Making herself known as a sophomore, Hilda Singleton leads her fellow students with ability and enthusiasm belying her age.

The final member of the "Bowman Boys", easy-going Kenneth parlayed goodtimes and a natural personality to make him an all-school favorite.

Always saying yes, no matter what the job, June Parrish continually disregarded her personal interests and got the work done.

TEN''

Starting young, John Graham Jordan combines his personality and ability to set himself apart as an effective leader and a friend.

A leader in the classroom and on the athletic field, Billy Amos has carved a niche at Goochland High that will serve well as a model for those who follow.

Sylvia Gathright's ability as a student leader made realities out of our dreams.

Didn't you bring any oranges?

THE MARK OF A CHAMPION . . .

When a young man and young woman can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he or she displays in their daily school life and can take the discouragement that will inevitably come to them in business, and can keep their fighting spirits and keep smiling . . . then they have the mark of a champion. The world needs young people like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such young men and women, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men and women of ambition and vision.
